IT Service desk Analyst

"As an IT Service desk analyst at Cognizant, I served in the Global Service Desk (GSD), providing high-quality technical support and troubleshooting. Leveraging ServiceNow for efficient ticketing and incident management, I handled the end-to-end user lifecycle- including creating, managing, enabling and disabling accounts via Active Directory. I was responsible for resolving complex technical glitches, managing outlook configuration issues, and streamlining access by performing password resets and software provisioning. My role focused on ensuring minimal downtime for global users while maintaining strict adherence to security protocols."
